

Fees and Charges

There is no charge for:

- the actual making of a request for environmental information
- access to public registers or lists of environmental information
- the examination in situ of such information
- a request for an internal review.

The State Laboratory may charge a reasonable fee when it makes available such information to include costs of compiling, copying, printing or posting of information.

A fee of €50 must be charged for an appeal to the Commissioner for Environmental Information. A reduced appeal fee of €15 is provided for in the case of medical card holders and their dependents and in the case of third parties appealing a decision to release certain information. This fee may be waived by the Commissioner where the State Laboratory has not provided the information within the specified time period.
