

Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2005 (SI 279 of 2005)

The State Laboratory complies with the regulations on the Re-use of Public Sector Information. The regulations are available on the Public Sector Information Website – www.psi.gov.ie.

All of the information featured on our website is the copyright of The State Laboratory. You may re-use the information on our website free of charge, re-use includes copying, issuing copies to the public, publishing, broadcasting and translating into other languages. It also covers non-commercial research and study. Re-use is subject to the following conditions. You must:

- Acknowledge the source and our copyright in cases where you supply the information to others;
- Reproduce information accurately;
- Not use the information in a misleading way;
- Not use the information for the principal purpose of advertising or promoting a particular product or service;
- Not use the information for or in support of illegal, immoral, fraudulent or dishonest purposes .

The State Laboratory is not liable for any loss or liability associated with the re-use of information and does not certify that the information is up-to-date or error free. The State Laboratory does not authorise any user to have exclusive rights to the re-use of its information.

Further information on the Functions, Records Rules and Practices of the State Laboratory is available in the Section 15 Functions and Records Guide and Section 16 Rules published in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act. This guide is available on our website.

For further information on the re-use of information maintained by The State Laboratory please contact:

Betty Mitchell
betty.mitchell@statelab.ie
Ph:01-5057046